

LEARN TO LEAD LIFE-CHANGING PROGRAMS

JOIN THE ART OF FACILITATION

Working with groups is by definition a creative challenge requiring innovation and fresh approaches. Join a diverse cohort of colleagues to learn how to build vibrant learning communities, lead inspiring programs, and spark the joy of learning in your participants and yourself.

You'll learn to:

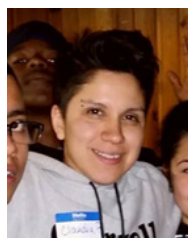

- Lead equitable, trauma-informed programs
- Transform resistance
- Gain comfort in front of groups
- Bring out the best in each person
- Make learning fun and relevant
- Increase inner motivation
- Ignite personal & group creativity
- Turn your facilitation work into a creative adventure

INCREASE THE IMPACT OF YOUR PROGRAMS

January - May 2020

5 weekends in 5 months

The Trainers

Claudia Pineda, MSW

Alan Wong, MSW

Peggy Taylor, MEd

Where we'll meet

1701 20th Avenue S.
Seattle, WA

For teachers, youth workers, and leaders of youth or adult groups

"I use the skills I learned at AOF everyday in my classroom as well as in my personal life."

Marianna Wiles, Teacher,
New York

APPLY TODAY

www.partnersforyouth.org

We especially invite people who work with underserved communities.

